Mr. William E. Lefkwich, III
Deputy Assistant Secretary of Defense for Equal Opportunity
Room 3A272, The Pentagon
Washington, DC 20301-4000

Dear Mr. Lefkwich:

The Federal Asian Pacific American Council (FAPAC) is soliciting nominations for the 2000 FAPAC Outstanding Achievement Award from each Federal Executive Department/Independent Agency.

The Award ceremony will be held at the annual Congressional Seminar and National Leadership Training Conference during the week of 8-12 May 2000 at the DoubleTree Hotel at Pentagon City/National Airport, Virginia and Capitol Hill, Washington, DC. The purpose of this award program is to recognize individuals who have made significant contributions to the advancement of Asian Pacific Americans and the promotion of equal opportunity in the Federal work force and the Asian Pacific American community.

The criteria for the Outstanding Achievement Award (Civilian) are listed in the attached enclosure; Please send your nomination to Harry Takai via fax to (202) 622-4454 or mail to FAPAC, P.O. Box 23184, Washington, D.C. 20026-3184 no later than March 31, 2000. Please note that each Department of Defense Component Agency is limited to one nominee in each category.

Please include a copy of the nominee's photo and biography in the nomination. We will make the selection and notify your agency no later than April 21, 2000. Should your nominee be selected as the recipient of the Award, a representative of your Agency, along with the nominee's invited guest, will receive a formal invitation to the Awards ceremony.

Please note that the award categories and criteria have changed from prior years. If you need more information, please feel free to contact Harry Takai at (202) 927-3497 or me at (301) 286-4358.

Thank you for your continued support.

Sincerely,

M.J. Maroof

Chair, Federal Asian Pacific American Council
